

AI Practitioner Diploma

Frequently Asked Questions

1- What is the study nature of the program (in class or virtual) and if it is in class, where will be the location?

AI Practitioner Diploma is a full time in class program located at National IT Academy facility in Dammam.

2- What is the degree that will be obtained by the graduates, and is it accredited?

Graduates will obtain Diploma Degree accredited by Technical and Vocational Training Corporation (TVTC).

3- Is there a Practical or Cooperative training during the study period?

Yes, there will be a practical training in the program study plan.

4- Will the graduates of the program be joining their jobs immediately after completing their studies?

After completing the diploma program, those who successfully complete the program will be employed by Aramco Digital and its partners.

5- Is there a monthly salary for those joining the program during the study period? And will they be registered in (GOSI)?

Yes, there is a monthly stipend by the sponsor company for those who will join the program, and they will be registered in (GOSI).

6- Will the program be offered in English?

Yes, the program will be completely English.

7- Will the program contain a preparatory period since artificial intelligence relies on English language, and the program is intended for high school graduates?

Yes, there will be a preparatory semester to study basic skills such as English language and other required skills.

8- Will private accommodation be provided for students coming from outside the training area?

Private accommodation will NOT be provided.

9- When will the AI Practitioner Diploma program start?

The expected start date for AI Practitioner Diploma will be in September 2023.

10-Will admission assessment and personal interview be in-person or online, and if it is in-person, where will be the location?

They will be in person, and the date and place will be determined after completion of screening the screening process.

11- Will medical insurance be provided?

Yes, if you are accepted to the program, medical insurance will be provided through the sponsoring company.

12- When NITA will contact me?

If you are nominated, you will be contacted through E-mail.

13- Facing difficulties during registration in the program?

In case you encounter any difficulty with registration, please contact us through the E-mail: admission@nita.edu.sa